

Lucknow: A high level delegation of Ghana led by His Highness Hon'ble Oheneba Yaw Otchere, the Royal Prince of Ghana along with Ghana's High Commissioner to India Mr. Oquaye Michaelaaron Yaw Nii Nortey and Lord Kamlesh Kumar Patel, member of the House of Lords, UK came to Sahara Shahr Lucknow for a two day visit to meet 'Sahasrri' Subrata Roy Sahara, Managing Worker & Chairman, Sahara India Pariwar.

(In the Left Picture) His Highness Royal Prince of Ghana presenting a special medallion to 'Sahasrri' Subrata Roy Sahara. It is a plaque which is presented to Saharasri has a traditional symbol (Adinkra) known as 'Adinkrahene' which is a representation of Greatness, leadership and service to the leaders who are visionary and charismatic but also humble and willing to serve their people.

(In the Centre Picture) High level Delegation led by Royal Prince meeting Saharasri at Sahara Shahr. (from Left) Mr. Kwabena Adjei-Seffah - Director of Projects, Ms. Linda Baa Mintah - Creative Director, Mr. Peter Kwasi Dadzie - Legal Counsel, His Highness Hon'ble Oheneba Yaw Otchere - Royal Prince of Ghana, 'Sahasrri' Subrata Roy Sahara, H.E. Michael Aaron Yaw Nii Nortey Oquaye - High Commissioner, Ghana to India, Professor Lord Kamlesh Patel of Bradford OBE - Member, House of Lords, UK, Mr. Amreesh Andrew Chandra - MD & Vice Chairman, Chandra EduLinks Pvt. Ltd., Mr. Isaac Addo Mensah - Business Development Manager, Mr. Sanjay Srivastava - Chandra EduLinks Pvt. Ltd., Mr. Aaron Nuamah Sintim - First Secretary to Consular Affairs.

(In the Right Picture) His Highness Hon'ble Oheneba Yaw Otchere, the Royal Prince of Ghana in one on one discussion with 'Sahasrri' Subrata Roy Sahara.